Chapter 318: The Divine Cultivation

Sung Jin-Woo, as The Absolute One, sought to expand abundance across the multiverse. To ensure prosperity for all civilizations, he initiated a grand agricultural project. He instructed the Twelve Divine Beings to use their divine systems to guide their followers, worshippers, and priests in cultivating Divine Farms and planting Divine Crops blessed with celestial energy.

Divine Farms

The divine farms were unique landscapes adapted to their realms:

1. Celestial Terraces: Farms built on floating platforms in the sky, irrigated by clouds of pure water.

2. Shadow Orchards: Darkened groves where crops thrived under shadow energy.

3. Abyssal Fields: Deep-sea farms illuminated by the glowing fruits of Divine Trees.

4. Dragon Plains: Vast, volcanic farmlands enriched with fiery mana.

5. Ethereal Meadows: Rolling fields infused with starlight, providing unmatched fertility.

6. Frozen Gardens: Farms in icy realms where frost-resistant crops flourished.

7. Lunar Glades: Enchanted fields beneath the moonlight, boosting the growth of nocturnal crops.

Divine Crops

1. Golden Ambrosia Grain

Description: Golden stalks shimmering with divine light.

Purpose: The grain provides endless stamina and divine energy. Used for bread and potions.

2. Shadow Lotus

Description: Black petals with a glowing violet core.

Purpose: Enhances stealth and shadow-related abilities. Used by Shadowkins and assassins.

3. Aetherfruit

Description: Star-shaped fruit glowing with a soft blue aura.

Purpose: Boosts mental clarity and intelligence, often consumed by priests.

4. Inferno Pepper

Description: Fiery red peppers that emit heat.

Purpose: Strengthens physical resilience and fire-based abilities.

5. Celestial Vine

Description: Climbing plant with luminous white grapes.

Purpose: Produces divine wine that rejuvenates and enhances lifespans.

6. Void Apples

Description: Black apples with glowing purple veins.

Purpose: Enhances resistance to spatial and temporal disruptions.

7. Silverleaf Herb

Description: Silvery leaves with a minty aroma.

Purpose: Used for healing potions and curing ailments.

8. Frostberries

Description: Tiny, icy-blue berries growing on frosted bushes.

Purpose: Boosts endurance in cold environments.

9. Aurora Melons

Description: Large melons with a surface reflecting rainbow light.

Purpose: Provides nourishment that amplifies magical energy.

10. Drake Corn

Description: Tall stalks with flaming red kernels.

Purpose: Consumed by Dragonkins to enhance strength and fiery breath.

11. Lunar Blossoms

Description: Glowing flowers that bloom only under moonlight.

Purpose: Used to craft calming teas and lunar potions.

12. Starlight Beans

Description: Small, glowing beans resembling tiny stars.

Purpose: Acts as fuel for divine machinery and sustains energy levels.

13. Ethereal Root

Description: Pale roots that grow deep underground, glowing faintly.

Purpose: Boosts vitality and accelerates recovery.

14. Ocean Pearlsprout

Description: Aquatic plants with pearl-like seeds.

Purpose: Consumed by aquatic beings to enhance their abilities.

15. Radiant Wheat

Description: Wheat that sparkles gold in sunlight.

Purpose: Used to bake divine bread that provides warmth and nourishment.

The Purpose of Divine Agriculture

Sung Jin-Woo's plan to spread agriculture was twofold:

1. To ensure every civilization across realms had access to sustenance, bolstering their growth and resilience.

2. To instill harmony between divine creations and their environments, fostering sustainability and balance.

Under the guidance of the Twelve Divine Beings, these Divine Farms became symbols of prosperity and devotion, while the Divine Crops enriched the lives of all who partook in their bounty. The multiverse thrived, unified under the blessings of The Absolute One.